Magnusson Estate Sales and Auction Services will officially become an integral part of the Estate Specialty firm, Personal Property Consultants on January 1, 2005. This distinction will help our clients with new marketing approaches and individualized attention. eBay 4U, a listing service for individual consignors, is also now part of the company. eBay4U will research, photograph, list, answer emails, pack and ship consignments for the benefits of those who have only a few items to sell. Personal Property Consultants assists clients in the appraisal and sale or purchase of their antiques, art and collections.

January is Americana month in New York
