ABOUT US

Personal Property Consultants serves Attorneys and their clients by helping them get their personal property valued, distributed or de-accessioned. PPC can sell contents of all types and leave the home in a broom swept condition, ready for the new owners. Our specialties are antiques, art, collections and residential contents.

PPC is family owned and operated, serving attorneys, executives, and trusts for over ten years. Our appraisers are experienced in antique and contemporary silver, ceramics, furniture, glass decorative and fine art, toys collectibles and textiles. Our business is referral generated, just like yours, and we appreciate you!

PPC recently brokered the sale of this modern sculpture by Marisol Escobar for a record setting $101,000

WHAT'S IT WORTH?

This early 19th Century hutch, which was used as a chicken coop, was found in a barn right here in North Jersey, not far from the town where it was made in Bergen County. One of PPC's experts recognized its importance. Restored, it should sell for $10,000.
